A Weary World Rejoices!

Luke 2:7-20

We live one day at a time. In fact, life goes by so fast it may be more reasonable to say we live one year at a time. 2017 went by very quickly, but quite honestly I am not going to miss it.

2017 was a noisy year! Politics, wars, natural disasters and changes of all kinds in the world and in our daily lives. But as things settle down in 2018, there does appear to be a more positive view on the horizon.

For one, it may not be a 'criminal' offense to be a Christian in 2018. Though the courts are still out on that one, there is reason to be optimistic. The tone of the nation seems to be leaning a little more towards seeking spiritual grace than demanding self-gratification.

Such a turn things have taken this past year! Who would have thought that a headline like this would be possible in the Washington Post?

"Top Trump administration officials flock to weekly Bible study classes at White House".

~ Washington Post, August 1, 2017

https://www.washingtonpost.com/news/answer-sheet/wp/2017/08/01/top-trump-administration-officials-flock-to-weekly-bible-study-classes-at-white-house/?utm_term=.c40c0da9a188

How did that happen? Is that even a real headline? Who would have ever guessed? It causes me to look up to Heaven remembering the words of Daniel, "The most high God rules in the kingdom of men, and He appoints over it whomsoever He will."

It may at first thought seem not possible, but the truth is God does many great things for His people, even influencing the powers of this world for the Church.

MY ROLE IN THE WORLD

The Lord will take care of the world as He sees fit. Our key role in it is to pull as many souls out of it as we can.

"Then flew one of the seraphims unto me, having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off the altar:

And he laid it upon my mouth, and said, Lo, this hath touched thy lips; and thine iniquity is taken away, and thy sin purged.

Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then said I, Here am I; send me.

And he said, Go, and tell this people, Hear ye indeed, but understand not; and see ye indeed, but perceive not." Isaiah 6

As God gave Adam the Garden of Eden to enjoy as well as the responsibility of tending to it, so we too have the Lord's Kingdom to enjoy and are responsible for it.

Looking around, is it not reasonable to ask, Is there a growing momentum in the nation towards the things of Christ, that with faith and prayer we can build on? Are the fields of our nation actually "white already to harvest"? Are people's hearts changing?

Just last week, and every year during the holidays the Christmas carols that people sing throughout the nation also testify that the answer is yes.

Across the entire country we could hear God Rest Ye Merry Gentlemen with lyrics singing of Christ's birth and how He came "to save us all from Satan's power for we have gone astray. O tidings of Comfort and Joy!"

O Holy Night sings of the misery the world is in because of sin and yet when Christ appeared "the soul felt its worth"! And with Christ "a thrill of hope" was given causing a "weary world" to rejoice.

It's there. Christ said that when He is lifted up He would draw all men to Him.

GOD WITH US

That is actually the Son of God's name in prophecy. Emmanuel, "which being interpreted is, God with us."

And if God be for us and even with us, nothing can stand against us. What is possible with God? What is possible to them that believe?

The answer to both those questions is "All things." Even the converting of this weary world.

What's in the Bible?

*The Book contains the mind of God,
the state of man,
the way of salvation,
the doom of sinners,
and the happiness of believers.*

*Its Doctrines are holy,
its precepts are binding,
its histories are true,
and its decisions are immutable.*

*Read it to be wise,
Believe it to be safe,
Practice it to be holy,
Teach it to be saved.*

*It possesses
Light to direct you,
Food to strengthen you,
and Comfort to cheer you.*

It serves as *the Traveller's map,

the Pilgrim's staff,
the Pilot's compass,
the Soldier's sword,
and the Christian's charter.*

In its pages

*Paradise is restored, Heaven opened,
and the Gates of Hell destroyed.*

It should

*Fill the memory,
Rule the heart,
Rejoice the spirit,
and Guide the feet.*

Read it slowly,

*frequently,
and prayerfully.*

It is given to you in life,

*will be opened in the Judgement,
and will be in Heaven forever.*

It encompasses

*the highest responsibility will reward the greatest labor,
and will condemn all who trifle with its Sacred contents.*

Christ is its Grand Object,

*Our good, its Design,
And the Glory of God, its end.*
