Keeping in touch with Iowa's Churches of Christ

June 2018

“Tom & Drew’s Dessert Review”

What is “Tom and Drew’s Dessert Review”? Well, their tag line states, “a casual forum for the discussion of Christianity, Faith, Family, and Dessert. Episodes will be produced on a monthly(ish) basis.”

From the “About Tom & Drew’s Dessert Review” page, Drew puts it this way:

“Tom and Drew’s Dessert Review has been a long process that Tom Collier and I have been working on. Tom and I are both ENFJ personality types (If you don’t know what that is, ask Alena Ingle so she can give you the test to take yourself and answer a whole bunch of questions about who you are and how you respond in certain situations) so we are both pretty outgoing guys.

“Outgoing guys who also like dessert. Tom has a history of radio interviewing and general out-of-the-box approaches that I really appreciate. Tom is also married to a wonderful deep-thinker and analyst Dianne who you may hear on the podcast either in the back or in the ‘interview hot-seat’. So that is pretty much our story. Two guys who like to talk, discussing Christianity in an affable way, while also reviewing dessert. Presto.”

Here are a few objective opinions from listeners:

LuAnne Woody Enjoyed the discussion—kept me company while working on the computer. Good thoughts. And the Indianola A&W is the very best A&W, hands down. Close second is in Boonville, MO.

Tanner George This is the best idea ever !!! 😄😄😄

Grace Fischer This is so cool, Drew Teghtmeyer! I’m excited. What a neat idea. 😊

Thought on understanding the Old and New Testaments

“I have discovered after teaching for a number of years that part of the problem of people not knowing how to interpret the New Testament (NT) occurs because they don’t know the Old Testament (OT). Most of the NT derives its definitions, teaching, promises and ideas from OT doctrine. Reading the NT without knowing and studying the OT is like walking into the middle of a movie and trying to guess the plot and where it is going. Some movies are easier than others to figure out if one walks in at the halfway point, but others that have a complex plot, lots of dialogue, and many twists will be extremely hard to figure out. Hence, the Bible is that movie.”

For an excellent source for further study of the relationship between the Old and New Testaments, see <http://www.bible-researcher.com/nicole.html>, New Testament Use of the Old Testament by Roger Nicole (1915-2010).

How much of the Old Testament is found in the New Testament?

"The Old is the New concealed and the New is the Old revealed."

Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil.

For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled. ~ Matthew 5:17-18

Wherefore lay apart all filthiness and superfluity of naughtiness, and receive with meekness the engrafted word, which is able to save your souls. ~ James 1:21

Abraham saith unto him, "They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them." And he said, "Nay, father Abraham: but if one went unto them from the dead, they will repent." And he said unto him,

"If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though [O]ne rose from the dead." ~ Luke 16:29-31

For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope. ~ Romans 15:4

But with many of them God was not well pleased: for they were overthrown in the wilderness. Now these things were our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted. Neither be ye idolaters, as were some of them; as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play. ~ 1 Corinthians 10:5-7

Neither murmur ye, as some of them also murmured, and were destroyed of the destroyer. Now all these things happened unto them for examples: and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come. Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall. ~ Corinthians 10:10-12
