David, Marla, and Kara Fetters and Roberta Milinsky visited Marla and Roberta's aunt Mary Cobb and attended Tent Chapel in Blockton, IA.

We have had lots of members with health problems. Yvonne Coe has been having problems with shingles. Neal Warren hasn't seen any improvement in his eye. He had another shot in it, but isn't any better. Remember him. Earl Allen had cardio-version on his heart, and it was successful. He is feeling better, but will work on strengthening his heart muscle. Don Warren has a melanoma on his chest and is scheduled for surgery to remove it.

Visitors: John Chapman, Bill Charlier, Paxon Boozell, Grayson Plummer, Kirsten Done, Jake McClung, Colton and Preston Boozell.

Ill: Frank Meek and Karma Sharp.

In June we welcomed several visitors from Japan who were in town for the annual Glenn Miller festival.

Big news for July was the 104th birthday of Elsie Negley. Elsie's address is 600 Manor Dr., Clarinda, IA 51632 for those that would like to send birthday greetings.

Our topic for July was "The Value of Your Salvation" — a great lesson for all.

Guests during the month were Hadley Miller, Timber and Minka Negley. On August 2nd, Amy, Micah, Isaac, and Skylar Schmidt; and Mary Smith, Alex, and Aubri joined us.

Our thoughts and prayers continue to be with those of our congregation dealing with health issues.

We enjoyed helping Dick and Phyllis Bown celebrate their golden wedding anniversary with an evening potluck party on their front lawn on a recent Saturday evening, with many of their friends and relatives. They then spent a week in Colorado vacationing with their family.

Drew and Courtney Tegtmeyer vacationed in Wisconsin with the Tegtmeyer family.

Marlene Soard has been having some health problems. Please keep her in your prayers.

Visitors this month have been Bryan, Logan, and Lance Bown; Jared Groves; Stephanie, Ada, Allie, and Anna Stephens; and Kaitlyn—a friend of Tanner George.

Several of us traveled to Lee's Summit, Missouri, to attend all or parts of the meeting.

Sarah Deaton, a voice major, had the opportunity to solo at a concert performed by Simon Estes on July 23rd at Indian Hills Community College at Ottumwa, IA. Sarah is the daughter of Blaine and Melanie Deaton and the granddaughter of Don and Wanda Burkman.

I appreciate the prayers, cards and other acts of kindness that have been given to me over this past month of medical problems. Fighting three different infections all at once and keeping my legs up has been challenging, but, is easier knowing my Christian friends and God are there for me. Thank you dearly!
